Had reply is invited to a previous Reg letter on the subject and this office reply. The Refugee Office has stated that his tour will include among other things, Whitefields and Kely F.
 He is to interview evacuees who are receiving allowances individually. It is seen from the list received from the DCS that 27 evacuees live in Bagdad city, 37 in Whitefields and Yelabinka, 45 in Myson (most of them in Good Shepherd Convent Myson) and 3 in Kely. In other DCS there are very few evacuees but in the case of Bagdad Myson, the evacuees do not seem to receive any allowances. As such, the his visit to Bagdad city, Myson city and Whitefields may perhaps suffice. A copy of the Reg letter and enclosure will be sent to the DCS of Bagdad, Myson and as they will be requested to give publicity and to arrange to collect the evacuees at a particular place, as desired. Perhaps the Refugee Office may be asked to get in touch with the above DCS re: his programme.
